

Rachel King

Although she does not look like your traditional Christian, and more like what most would perceive to be a rebellious teenager, she is completely sold out to Christ. Her appearance gives her an edge to reach those among her generation that many would not or could not.

She is a leader, worshiper, intercessor, and prayer warrior, with the word of the Lord in her mouth for her generation and those to come. She is passionate about seeing her generation sold out to GOD and presents the Gospel of Jesus Christ in a relevant way that remains true to the Word of GOD but reaches her generation. Though currently in high school, don't let her youth deceive you, she is filled with the wisdom of GOD.
