She strongly believes that with God you can do all things but fail. She presents herself before you with a humble heart, a loving spirit, and an unconditional love. Her greatest desire is to have a heart like her/the Lord and Savior. Showing love, kindness, acceptance, and compassion for everyone from every walk of life. She desires to minister the Word of God to everyone who crosses her path. She believes God has bestowed upon each priest different ministry mantles to fulfill His desire for His people. We must reach the misunderstood and the lost with the unconditional love of God.
