

Tiffany Beckles

Tiffany Beckles is a wife and mother to three beautiful girls. She serves alongside her husband as First Lady of a historically African American Church in the heart of Monroe, Ga. She is the Founder of Teachable Moments with Tiffany Beckles. She is an energetic Bible teacher, encourager, and a certified Christian Counselor who teaches Christians to use the Word of God as a guide to abundant living in every area of their lives. Tiffany is wholly fulfilled when given the opportunities to encourage, empower, and motivate others into having an ongoing and thriving relationship with Jesus Christ.

Tiffany has always been a natural-born trailblazer, encourager, and motivator of others. Because of her belief that she was born to encourage and influence others, she prepared herself through her academic endeavors graduating from World Harvest Bible College and Luther Rice Seminary with a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Biblical Counseling.
